Course Name

Leadership Essentials (Infrastructure Workforce)

Course Description

This highly practical training provides progressive opportunities for you to practise and refine your leadership skills using contextualised scenarios to continually match the learning to the workplace. The programme incorporates behaviour development that is highly relevant and will be of significant value to all Network Rail staff undertaking front-line leader roles that include permit to work responsibilities.

Audience

The programme is designed for those who work on the infrastructure and lead a team but do not have line management responsibilities. It's suitable for both existing Team Leaders and those getting ready for the role. No previous leadership experience is needed to attend.
