Course Name

An Introduction to Finance for Non Finance Managers

Course Description

This introductory workshop is designed for people who are not in a dedicated financial role including those managing either a budget or cost centre, or are involved in making financial decisions. The workshop provides delegates with the underpinning knowledge required to have a better understanding of finance within Network Rail. It outlines some of the core financial responsibilities of cost centre owners and identifies key stakeholders that can support this. It does not give route specific information in terms of the running of budgets etc. but will introduce how money flows in Network Rail and the key concepts around financial terminology.

Audience

Designed for people who are not in a dedicated financial role. This could include those managing a budget or involved in making financial decisions. This is an introduction and is aimed at people with little or no experience.
