

Frontline Leadership Programme

Course Name

Frontline Leadership - Team Events: Team Building Workshop

Course Description

Helps teams to re-engage and move forward both effectively and cohesively by forming a clear vision for the team and clear strategies on how this can be achieved. The workshop facilitates discussions about lessons learnt from the change, developing the line manager's vision and mission for the team, identifies strategies to achieve the vision, and produces a team charter for how the team will operate going forwards.

Audience

Any team that has emerged from a period of change and needs to re-focus its direction and ways of working in order to meet new challenges together.
