

Rail Incident Responder Refresher Training

This course provides those involved in railway incident management an opportunity to update, practice and develop their incident management skills. The course is highly interactive and practical. It brings the theory to life with practical exercises in both the classroom and on the railway at our outdoor training locations(s). Where possible we work with the local emergency services to involve them in the training too.

Course Type

Personal Protective Equipment - Face to Face

Download Date: 21/11/2024